Comments:

KNOWLEDGE

- set parameters for lesson and involved students making connections to L.A. and math is a strategy that reinforced both ^{skills} for students. Having students work on smartboard help you see when mistakes are made (assess & correct)

Comments:

PERFORMANCE

- if students need help allow them to "phone a friend" "who can raise their hand and" - keep answer focused
- paced lesson well, intervened as needed by corrections and directions. Movement in class kept students on task, answered ???

Comments:

DISPOSITION

- technology and visuals are effective teaching tools
positive, professional demeanor "Teacher voice"
binda is ready to go - Thank you for making corrections!
"You guys" → friendly class students

OVERALL COMMENTS

You are the catalyst for learning in the classroom - self reflection, planning and "trial and error" are strengthening your skills as a teacher! Good luck!
